

How to Submit a Claim for Damages

If you have been injured or your property has been damaged and, in your opinion, you believe the city of Edgewood may have a responsibility to you, a Claim for Damages form is required to be completed for the city to determine its level of responsibility to the claimant.

A Claim for Damages form can be obtained by visiting the city website at www.cityofedgewood.org on the City Clerk page.

A Claim for Damages form must be completed, signed, notarized, and filed with the city's designated agent. City Clerk Rachel Pitzel, has been appointed the Designated Agent for receiving Claims for Damages against the city made under RCW Chapter 4.92.010.020.

Submittal of a claim for Damages does not guarantee payment by the city or its insurance carriers. An investigation by a claims adjuster will be made into the incident to determine if the city has any liability as determined by applicable laws.

If it is determined that the city has a responsibility to you, the amount of the claim payment is based on the level of city liability, the level of your liability (if any), and the depreciated value (not replacement value) of the property damaged.

Claims Adjusters representing its insurance carrier usually conduct investigations into claims for damages. You may be contacted by Washington Cities Insurance Authority (WCIA) depending on your claim. The investigation will be conducted as expeditiously as possible.

Please contact Rachel Pitzel via email at rachel@cityofedgewood.org via phone at (253) 952-3299 if you have any questions.
